

Biographical Sketch For:
Terri A. Harvill

Terri Harvill is a native of Birmingham Alabama. She is a product of Holy Family Catholic Schools.

She received her bachelor's degree (Public Administration) in 1995 from Talladega College, where she was Ms. Talladega College 1994-95. She received her master's degree (Organizational Management) from Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts in 2007. She became a Realtor in April 2012.

She has served the Birmingham community in several capacities, the most noted is as District Vice President for the YMCA of Greater Birmingham, serving since 1991. She has been an integral part of community initiatives and a change agent for youth. As a Realtor, she brings her love for community and passion for families to every family she serves.

She was co-owner/operator of Hilltop Property Solutions from 2012-2015. After leaving Hilltop , she and her husband opened their real estate development company, Positive Development . As a realtor, in 2016, she joined the team of Prime Investment Brokers.

During her years of service for the YMCA, she has received several local and national honors and awards, including being a Birmingham 2014 Best in Minority Business Award recipient and 2014 Inaugural City of Birmingham's Civil Rights Humanitarian Award recipient. She is a leader in the community and has served as a liaison for many community partnerships and collaborations including federal initiatives such as President Obama's Communities Putting Prevention to Work Community grant, the REACH grant and Alabama's Healthy Kids/Healthy Communities initiative. She helped to lead Jefferson County's Health Action Partnership Healthy Children and Youth Public Health Advised Fund Project, Michelle Obama's "Let's Move Outside" initiative and is on the Steering Committee for Northeast Birmingham Area Framework Plan.

She is a licensed realtor and co-owner of Positive Development, LLC. and Positive Plumbing and Gas alongside her husband. She is passionate about helping people and making our communities better...one family at a time!

She serves on several boards including Eastside Mental Health Center, Hands @ Play and Children's Policy Council, Heart Gallery, and Anointed Homes Art Gallery. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. She does motivational speaking and seminars across the national for spiritual and secular organizations and forums. She is the wife of Omar Harvill Sr., is second mother to Omar Jr., Kolby, and Noah Harvill, Katie Lewis and mother of 5year old Kerrin Harvill.